Credit One, LLC services with any other goods or services; (1) Make any promises or guarantees with respect to Credit One services; (2) Execute Credit One, LLC retainer agreement on any client's behalf; or (3) Attempt to circumvent any of Credit One, LLC security measures. Credit One, LLC reserves the right to revoke access upon the following; (i) Discovering that you have not complied with the foregoing terms and conditions, (ii) Receipt of notice from one of your clients to revoke your access to their case, (iii) One of your clients closing their case with Credit One, LLC, or (iv) For any other reason determined by Credit One, LLC, in its sole discretion, that access should be revoked. Governing Law and Jurisdiction. This Agreement is deemed to have been executed and performed exclusively in the State of Kentucky. Kentucky law, without regard to conflict of law provisions and federal law govern this Agreement. Any legal or equitable action concerning this Agreement shall be initiated only in Hardin County, Kentucky and both parties agree to submit to the personal and exclusive jurisdiction of the courts therein. Mediation and Class Action Waiver. Before filing a lawsuit regarding any dispute between you and Credit One, LLC, you first agree to mediate any dispute by using a third party neutral mediator, to be mutually agreed upon by you and Credit One, LLC. The mediation shall take place in Hardin County, Kentucky. You waive your right, if any, to participate in class action litigation regarding Credit One, LLC. By signing Credit One, LLC Client/Financial Affiliate Access Agreement as a Financial Affiliate professional, you regularly interact with clients who apply for credit. Based on your consultation with your client and your professional judgment, some of these clients may benefit from the credit report repair services offered by Credit One, LLC. It is, therefore, our intention to refer qualified clients to Credit One, LLC. To help monitor your client's progress at Credit One, LLC, Credit One, LLC will provide you with access to an ongoing summary/status of each client's case, contingent upon the client authorizing Credit One, LLC to do so. In order to receive this access, you agree to: (1) Disclose Credit One, LLC as the provider of credit report repair services, and disclose Credit One, LLC fees; (2) Have the client review and execute Credit One, LLC retainer agreement (among other things, the retainer agreement authorizes Credit One, LLC to share information about the client's case with you); and (3) Comply with applicable state law, federal law, and professional responsibilities, if any at all times. You further agree that you will not: (1) Advertise (without prior written approval).

I have read and accept the terms of the above agreement.
